"How to become a Member" is contained in it.

A CARD BROOKLYN PUBLIC SCHOOL No. 15, Jan. 18, 1859.—The undersigned parents of Public School No. 15 do hereby set forth and declare that in respect to the offer to create the members of the Brooklyn Library Association of Brooklyn made by some persons or persons to the school, Mr. Clark, the author of the letter, is not acting at the time for the benefit of the Association on the 18th inst., not so much as named to them, or that they would be expected to vote at all at such meetings—nor does he act for any particular candidate.

So far as I am concerned, I do not prefer to give the charge of library, Mr. Clark, earnestly urged the vote, if they voted at all, with ticket as they pleased—independently and without bias, from any one.

Mr. Clark, the author of the letter, of Hill in The Tribune, has met me, securing them or any one else of our election and bidding in relation to this affair, totally without foundation.

Signed,

W. H. WELDEN, J. H. STILLWELL, and sixty others.
